

NEWARK COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT TOUR

Tuesday, December 22, 1987

A Look at An American City's Rebirth: How Various Local Organizations Affect Change....

9:30 a.m.-10:15 a.m. Meet at Newark's Gateway Complex

Greeting by Tour Guides; Overview of the Day; Distribution of Packets.

A Walk Through Gateway with Director of Mayor's Office of Development a representative of the office. Coffee & Danish will be provided by Gateway.

10:15 a.m. to 11 a.m. A Visit Ironbound Community Corporation

A Presentation by Vic DeLuca, Director of ICC and residents about why the Ironbound organization exists, the effects of people's efforts and update on toxic issues facing the community from neighborhood resident Joe Nardone.

11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. A visit to Joe Nardone's Street; What residents are up against. How they have worked together and made a difference.

11:30 to 12 noon A bus ride through Downtown Newark; North Newark and past the Universities in the heart of the city, to University Heights... a re-development area;

12 noon to 1 p.m. Local perspective on Re-development in Newark. Meet with Frank Hertz of Coalition Six, and organization that has been working with residents of the Central Ward for eight years.

1:15 to 2:15 p.m. Lunch at the Nobel House.

2:30 to 3:30 A visit with residents of the Vailsburg Community at Vailsburg Branch Public Library. A panel discussion focusing on Neighborhood Issues relating to housing, jobs, economic development and taxes. How the neighborhood has organized itself to address issues. Building on what tour participants have seen throughout the day, this session will provide an opportunity for questions and answers and a general wrap-up.